

SUSAN ANTHONY POTTER PRIZES
IN SPANISH LITERATURE OF THE GOLDEN AGE

These prizes were instituted in 1908 by Professor Murray Anthony Potter in memory of his mother, Susan Anthony Potter, and endowed in 1957 through a bequest of his wife, Bessie Lincoln Potter. In Romance Languages and Literatures, two prizes are offered for the best essays on a subject dealing with Spanish literature of the Golden Age, i.e. Spanish and Hispanic American literature from 1492 to 1700: a first prize and a second prize. The competition is open to undergraduates in Harvard College.

Awarded annually for the best essay on Spanish Literature of the Golden Age, two monetary awards will be given.

- Essays may be of any length.
- Essays must treat Spanish or Spanish-American literature from 1492 through 1700.

Deadline for submission: May 31, 2016
